

Exempt Status for Food Establishments
(As defined in the Current Missouri Food Code)

(viii) Where local codes allow, individual stands in which only foods meeting the following conditions are sold, sampled or served: (AA) Non-potentially hazardous processed foods, except low acid canned and acidified foods as specified in 21 CFR 113 and 114 respectively, including, but not limited to bread, cookies, fruit pies, jams, jellies, preserves, fruit butters, honey, sorghum, cracked nuts, packaged spices and spice mixes, dry cookie, cake, bread, and soup mixes; (BB) The seller is the individual actually producing the food or an immediate family member residing in the producer's household with extensive knowledge about the food; (CC) The seller only sells, samples or serves the food directly to the end consumer; (DD) All processed packaged foods bear a label stating the name and address of the manufacturer/processor preparing the food, common name of the food, name of all the ingredients in the food and a statement that the product is prepared in a kitchen that is not subject to inspection by the Department of Health and Senior Services. It is recommended that honey manufacturers/processors include this additional statement to its label, "Honey is not recommended for infants less than twelve (12) months of age."; and (EE) The consumer is informed by a clearly visible placard at the sales or service location that the food is prepared in a kitchen that is not subject to inspection by the Department of Health and Senior Services if the foods specified in Subparagraph 1-201.10(B) (31)(c)(viii)(AA) are sold, sampled or served in unpackaged, individual portions. The Christian County Health Department shall have the final authority in determining whether a food is non-potentially hazardous and may enjoin individuals who violate the provisions of this section from selling, sampling or serving these foods.

**Keep in mind that no whipped cream, custards, meringues or other potentially hazardous fillings (ie: cream sheese or sour cream) can be added.*
